

2019 PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

WWW.ORGCOMMUNITY.COM

Make your connections count!

Why .orgCommunity?

.orgCommunity is your place to connect with C-level association executives who are addressing disruption in their industries and are interested in how our vetted solutions providers can help!

Our leaders, Sherry Budziak and Kevin Ordonez, have a finger on the pulse of the association industry. Through their consulting engagements and as supplier partners themselves, they understand the importance for association executives to learn from industry partners who have the knowledge that can assist them in advancing their organizations.

Our partnerships are by invitation. This exclusive opportunity ensures that only vendors that meet our standards for quality participate. Our goal is to offer the best solutions to our community.

.orgCommunity provides a home for members and partners to explore how to stay competitive, relevant and survive, and to learn from each other in a meaningful way.

.orgCommunity is a unique peer-to-peer network that supports association and nonprofit staff through:

- Handcrafted connections between attendees and vendors
- Think tank environments for inspiring collaboration
- Intimate venues and programs that allow for solutions providers to help attendees find answers to pressing challenges

Who Are We?

Launched in 2015 by Sherry Budziak and Kevin Ordonez, known entrepreneurs and industry consultants who served associations for a combined 50+ years, .orgCommunity was created to provide the association industry with cutting edge education and innovation, intimate settings to maximize the networking executives need for success, and, always, a little bit of fun!

Sherry Budziak, Co-founder, .orgCommunity

Sherry is an expert at making connections that matter. She possesses more than 20 years of nonprofit leadership and executive consulting experience—advising more than 200 organizations in using technology to transform their operations and enhance value to their customers. She actively participates in the association community as an industry partner, volunteer leader, author and speaker for various organizations. Also, the CEO of .orgSource, she truly understands the solutions associations need to succeed.

Kevin Ordonez, Co-founder, .orgCommunity

During the last two decades, Kevin has dedicated himself to the association community as a vendor partner, volunteer, speaker, author and consultant. Kevin's biggest impact has been through connecting passionate individuals who seek to leverage all things digital to advance the cause of associations and improve their organizations' operations.

Destiny Nance-Evans, Managing Director, .orgCommunity

As .orgCommunity's managing director, Destiny ensures .orgCommunity's partners and executives learn about each other and helps to advance the association and nonprofit community. Previously Associate Director for Illinois Society for Association Executives and Director of Membership and Social Media, she has worked in every capacity of association management, whether it was directing initiatives or being a part of a team executing projects for clients.

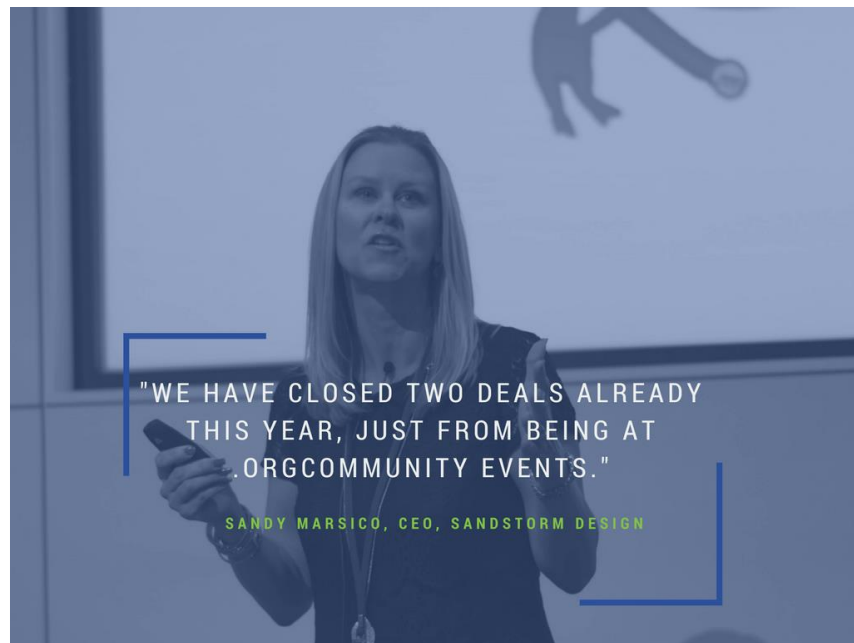

The Benefits to You

Our programs are designed to provide our partners opportunities to:

- Get recognized as a leading company in the association space
- Gain exposure to decision makers
- Be part of a community of leaders looking for new ideas to advance their organizations
- Get connected with the right opportunities
- Be part of a movement

We work hard to make sure that you connect with the “right” opportunities and contacts.
